Get Involved: Committee Nominations Open May 9

The Partnership for Quality Measurement (PQM) relies on its diverse membership to ensure all voices and perspectives are represented and considered throughout the measure review process. We invite anyone interested in shaping the future of health care quality to nominate themselves or others to Pre-Rulemaking Measure Review (PRMR), Measure Set Review (MSR), and Endorsement and Maintenance (E&M) committees beginning May 9, 2024. The nominations period will close June 7, 2024. Additional details will be shared on the PQM website closer to the opening date.

Guidebook Updates Coming Soon; Provide Comments this Spring

PQM will publish revised PRMR-MSR and E&M guidebooks for public comment this spring. The proposed changes are based on feedback from committee members, staff, and other interested parties. The goal of these changes is to enhance the engagement and participation of committee members, patient partners, and members of the public, to provide added clarity to the PRMR-MSR and E&M processes, and to better align activities across PRMR-MSR and E&M. Guidebooks and public comment opportunities will be posted to the PQM website.

E&M Updates

Thank You for a Successful Fall 2023 Cycle

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all those who took part in the Fall 2023 E&M cycle. Our appreciation goes out to the measure developers and stewards for their submissions and active engagement with the E&M committees. We also acknowledge the E&M committee members and co-chairs for their commitment and involvement in this crucial task. Additionally, we are grateful for the valuable input from the public. As we embark on the Spring 2024 cycle, we anticipate another successful cycle and look forward to further learning from everyone involved as we strive to enhance and shape this process.

Final Technical Reports for the Fall 2023 cycle will be published this month on the PQM website.
